

Latest Oxford Companion now online!

14 Mar 2007 by JR

Purple pagers can now browse the entire 3rd edition of The Oxford Companion to Wine, nearly a million words, by clicking here or clicking on Oxford Companion in the purple menu on the left.

Do play with it and let us know of any improvements you'd like us to make. It has been quite a sweat getting to this stage, as you may imagine, so I can't guarantee that we can put your suggestions into practice, but we will certainly do our very best.

Hope you find this major new feature useful. It's certainly a vast improvement on the old online OCW2....
