

Ahr

10 Sep 2008 by Jancis Robinson

In a nutshell: Red wines barely known outside Germany.

Main grape: Spätburgunder (red).

Germans, and practically no one else, associate this very small northerly wine region with light red, often slightly sweet wines made from Spätburgunder (Pinot Noir) vines and mainly by co-operatives. Some more notable exceptions exist and, as everywhere in Germany, wines are getting drier.