

2005 top bordeaux tasting in London

5 Oct 2009 by Jancis Robinson

A record number of Bordeaux château owners will be showing off their 2005 vintage at this year's annual Institute of Masters of Wine claret tasting on Wednesday 4 Nov in Vintners' Hall in the City of London. More than 100 wines, including first growths, will be available for tasting in two sessions, one starting at 9.45am, the other at 11.30am.

Presumably reflecting the record prices achieved by this acclaimed vintage, tickets for this tasting cost £100 each and may be obtained by filling in the form below, copying it, and faxing, mailing or emailing it to Helen Williams at the Institute as shown below.
