

Written by

Team JR

11 Jun 2019

German 2018s - a guide

A shortcut to our extensive coverage of a particularly generous, healthy, ripe vintage that really excited our German specialist Michael Schmidt, with the most recent article at the top. Links will be added on publication. Dates are tentative. There are yet more articles in the pipeline...

The picture was taken on 30 September 2018 by Klaus Peter Keller in the Keller family's new acquisition, the steep Schubertslay vineyard above the Mosel.

Some German wines in the UK in 2019 \(Tasting articles\) Julia Harding MW 26 June 2019

Maxime Rheinhessen 2018 Ortsweine \(Tasting articles\) Michael Schmidt 24 June 2019

Michael's 2019 Mainz report - part 2 \(Tasting articles\) Michael Schmidt 18 June 2019

Michael's 2019 Mainz report - part 1 \(Tasting articles\) Michael Schmidt 13 June 2019

VDP 2018 Rieslings part 2 - Nahe and some Pfalz (Tasting articles) Jancis Robinson 11 June 2019

VDP 2018 Rieslings part 1 - Mosel (Tasting articles) Jancis Robinson 6 June 2019

Keller's 2018s and older reds previewed (Tasting articles) Julia Harding MW 10 April 2019

German vintage 2018 - best ever? (Inside information) Michael Schmidt 21 November 2018