

Written by
Guest contributor
25 May 2016

Music and wine - some reflections

Robert Slotover is a classical music agent with an abiding love of wine, particularly that made from obscure grape varieties. Here he muses on connections between his two great interests.

Music and wine? There seems to be a connection but what is it? Setting 'Lunchtime O'Boulez' [the British satirical magazine Private...

- MOST POPULAR  Annual membership Perfect for wine lovers £85 annual Join Save £17
- Monthly membership Perfect for wine lovers £8.50 monthly Join
- Still unsure? Find out more about membership and the Jancis Robinson Team. Find out more