

Written by
Elaine Chukan Brown
25 Jul 2017

Petaluma Gap - a windy AVA on hold

Sonoma's proposed Petaluma Gap AVA – known for its Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Syrah – is all but approved but, due to slow-downs under the Trump administration, its final authorisation is currently on hold for an unknown period of time. The proposed AVA has gone through every stage of public commentary and consideration required by the

- MOST POPULAR Annual membership Perfect for wine lovers £85 annual Join Save £17
- Monthly membership Perfect for wine lovers £8.50 monthly Join
- Still unsure? Find out more about membership and the Jancis Robinson Team. Find out more